THE SUICIDE RECORD

Hoboken, N. J., Leads the World in Self Destruction.

The current issue of the Spectator contains an article by Frederick L. Hoffman on the "Suicide Record For 1902." The data presented are based upon statistics from fifty-one cities, having a population of 14,500,000. It is shown that, comparing the ten years from 1892 to 1901 with the year 1902, suicide has increased, the rate per 100,000 population being 10 for the decade and 17 for the year 1902.

New York city, boroughs of Manhattan and Bronx, stand fifth on the list, but show a decrease in 1902, with a rate of 21 per 100,000 for that year and 21.2 for the decade. The cities with higher rates than New York for the longer period are St. Louis, 25.7; Hoboken, 24.8; Chicago, 23.4; and Oakland, Cal., 22.5. All these save St. Louis show an increase for 1902, and Hoboken stands out as the horrible example in the entire list, with a rate of 35.7 for last year. The borough of Brooklyn comes ninth in the general list, with a rate of 16.2 for the ten years and 19.3 for 1902. In the fifty cities included in the general table the totals are 19,700 suicides in the ten years, 1892-1901, and 2,452 in 1902.

Figures by nationalities are also interesting. By these it is shown that in the registration area of the United States the rate among native Americans is 6.8 per 100,000 of population, against 6.1 for those of Irish origin, 19.3 for those of German origin and 22 for those of French origin. A table on the suicide rate of males aged thirty-five and over for New York city indicates an increase from 4.8 per 100,000 of population in 1881 to 6.2 in 1901. This is considered by the author as being of special importance to insurance interests.

Fattening Up In Jail.

Does a sojourn in the county jail fatten up a prisoner? That is the question the county commissioners will answer for themselves by actual tests, says a Toledo dispatch. When complaints were made by prisoners of poor food Sheriff Newton denied them and pointed to the prisoners who came to the jail sickly, but left fat and healthy. The commissioners have ordered scales for the jail and every time a prisoner comes in for a stay of any length of time his weight will be taken. When he leaves after partaking of the prison fare his weight will again be taken to see if he has not "fattened up."

A General Thought.

"I tell you, I'll be master of my house when I'm a man!" said little Bennie. "That's what your father thought when he was your age, Bennie," replied the boy's mother.

Lemon Ice.

Make a lemonade with boiling water, using twice the usual amount of pulverized sugar. Freeze like mousses and then serve with thin wafers.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

De Wolf Hopper has begun his second season of "Mr. Pickwick." He will tour Canada and the United States.

The name of Siegfried Wagner's new opera will be "Der Kobold" ("The Sprite"). Neither date nor place has been fixed for the premiere.

A. M. Palmer has accepted an offer from Charles Frohman to become manager of the Herald Square theater, New York, for the coming season.

Maurice Levi is to take charge of all Mr. Frohman's musical productions in London this season. Mr. Levi will write exclusively for Mr. Frohman.

Frank Sanger has closed a contract by which a new musical piece is being completed by George Dance, the English author, with music by Alfred Muller-Norden.

James K. Hackett has begun rehearsals of Louis Evann Shipman's play, "John Ermine." The first presentation of the piece will take place in Boston at the New Globe theater.

"Tess of the d'Urbervilles" has been secured from Harrison Grey Fiske for a new star, Rebecca Warren, who will tour under the management of Frank Burt, the owner of two theaters at Toledo, O.

Why She Liked Him.

"Why do you like Harry?" asked one fair maid of another. "He kisses you most awkwardly, I've noticed."

"That's just why I like him," was the quick retort. "If he went about it in a graceful manner I would know he had been practicing before he met me."

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. For order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America, S. R. Dwy, Sec.
